KEY BENEFITS

Association Communications & Newsletter

All members are entitled to receive ZAA's Behind the Scenes newsletter, and as a new member you will be added to the recipient list. Our digital newsletter is where we promote the news and achievements of our members and on the progressive work of the Association.

Online Member Resources

The ZAA Portal is the gateway to member-only resources, where members can access information, education materials, conference proceedings and more.

Government agencies and registered training organisations are given full access to the ZAA Portal and view-only access to the Collection Planning Online System.

Member Events

ZAA's Annual Conference & Workshop 3-day event provides the opportunity for zoo and aquarium experts and partners to come together to share ideas, discuss zoo and aquarium developments and to network. All members can attend at member rates.

Business Promotion

The following benefits are available to ZAA Corporate Members.

Profiled through the ZAA Newsletter

Corporate Members are profiled in the Behind the Scenes newsletter upon joining, which reaches a readership of over 1,300 zoo/aquarium professionals.

The right to promote your organisation as a supporter of the Zoo and Aquarium Association

Businesses can improve their reputation in the marketplace through the entitlement to use the ZAA Member logo on their promotional and business collateral.

Placement on the ZAA website and Portal

The ZAA Portal is a member-only area that provides valuable resources to all our members and visited frequently by keepers, curators, veterinarians and educational personnel in the zoo and aquarium membership.

Discounted rates for exhibition space and/or sponsorship at the annual Zoo and Aquarium Association Conference or Workshop.

By attending ZAA events, Corporate Members are given the valuable opportunity to increase brand awareness, establish new contacts and generate new leads with zoo and aquarium professionals.
